

WEEK 2

Foot washing John 13:1-20

Key Verse John 13:15

I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you

In a strictly hierarchical society this whole scene would have seemed outrageous and scandalous.

For us today the concept of servant hearted leadership is widely practiced and recognised as legitimate leadership.

What lessons are there here about our attitudes to leadership?

What are the differences between servant leadership and being taken advantage of?

What can we do to safeguard ourselves and others as we engage in leading like Jesus?

How might you treat someone/a situation differently in light of what has been discussed tonight?
