

WEEK 13

The Best Breakfast

John 21: 1-19

Key Verse John 21:19

Then Jesus said to Peter

"Follow me"

In this beautiful Epilogue, the place of Peter is fully restored.

Can you think of a relationship which has gone horribly wrong, but through a process the relationship has been restored?

Why might we shy away from restoring relationships with those who have hurt us?

If restored relationships is a sign of the Kingdom of God, then where does the idea of justice fit into this?

How does the gospel reconcile concepts of justice and forgiveness?

Having studied the Gospel of John in detail, how has your faith been impacted?
